IMPORTANT NOTICES

The law requires that we have a valid certificate on hand in our tax department before any exempt sale or delivery is made. Before the exempt transaction occurs all certificates must be filled out accurately and completely with current expiration dates to be valid.

- Inspect your product invoices timely. Ramos Oil Co, Inc. endeavors to understand your business well and bill you according to your instructions. Ultimately, you are responsible for paying the taxes that you owe and determining the accuracy of tax charges, exemptions and credits set forth on our invoices to you.
- It is imperative that you notify us in writing within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of our invoice to you of any correction you require in order to apply the correction during the same tax reporting period.
- We will not amend tax returns, nor provide you with a credit or refund for corrections effecting any transaction if you fail to notify us in writing within ten (10) calendar days of your receipt of our invoice.
- Should a government audit deficiency be found concerning your account, you are responsible for the related tax assessment, including penalties and interest.
- By signing below you agree that you have informed us of all exemptions for which you are eligible and that you have completed the related exemption certificates attached for the calendar year referenced above. Many exemption certificates must be renewed annually. You are responsible to renew exemption certificates prior to their expiration. You also agree to the terms included in the important notices listed above.
